

Art and Craft

Benefits of Art and Craft

Enables children to assert individuality

Assists children to express feelings

Develops an understanding of cause and effect

Helps developing understanding of colours, shapes and textures

Develops planning skills

Encourages creativity

Links to the Curriculum

Community: sharing, taking turns, showing an increased competence in personal skills including learning to remaining seated independently.

Identity: learning care and empathy, develop imagination and creativity, showing pride in completion of work.

Communication: Following directions, vocabulary development.

Learning: learn to problem solve, how things fit together and hand-eye-coordination, shapes, colours, exploring textures.

Wellbeing: assembling a craft project, developing pencil grasp and coordination, drawing, colouring, cutting, pasting.

Opportunities

- Letter of the week craft
- Construction table
- Painting
- Water play with brushes
- Using stickers
- Practicing with scissors
- Sensory art, i.e. shaving cream

